Jennifer was a dear friend to me for over 22 years. Her strength, smile and love she had for her family will be etched in my heart forever. My prayer is that you can feel God's comfort during this difficult time that life moves on with out her here. I know she is walking the most beautiful beaches in heaven and we will be strong until we see her again.

Jennifer was a lovely person. She had a very generous and gracious spirit. We first became friends in high school when we both worked at KFC. We shared lots of laughs and tears over the years. I spent many times in her parents house as a teenager and they always made me feel so welcome. I am deeply saddened at Jennifers passing and my prayers and thoughts go out to her parents, Angie and her precious children at this most painful time. May God comfort all of you.
