My Darling "Big Sister"...we've gone thru so much in our lifetime, huh? From playing paperdolls together, dating, and having fun each and every summer until we married. But even then, we never grew apart. Your mother was my second mother as Jerrilyn was my sister, too. We both are even now going thru the same things! I buried my Ronnie last year and now your Dwight! We've come full circle again. The most wonderful thing we share is that we are not only blood related, but we are sisters in Christ! We have the wonderful knowledge that we will see our husbands and all relatives again!! I love you....see you soon in Arkansas.
