I had the privilege of working with Lisa at AERT. We would spend a lot of time talking about family, work, and life in general. We spent a lot of time eating chinese and mexican food. She will always be remembered as a geniune friend.Lisa...I will miss our lunches together discussing life, Jesus and family!To all her children and husband...she loved you all dearly and spoke of the family bond you had! She will be forever in your hearts...and look to Jesus to bring you together again!!!!

Lisa's family. You are being held up in prayer. While I cannot be there in the flesh, I am truly there in spirit. Ken, Rachel, Josh and Kristin are lifting you up in prayer. We pray this..Father, lift up this family. Raise them up in the knowledge of what really matters.Father we know that you have Lisa, because she confessed you before Men. Father, you know our hearts.You know who seeks after your heart, and who chooses to walk in your ways. You know our faults and forgive as we ask your forgiveness. You are there for those who seek your presence. You know who understands your ways and who understands why Lisa is with you now, and who must seek to understand. We pray for those in this family who do not know you, that you would truly work your really cool and merciful works in them, because that is what you do. Father we lift up this family and Father especially Lisa's husband and her children in their great time of mourning. Let them know in their hearts, Yes Father let them know that Lisa is really with you because she chose Jesus as her Saviour, who is the only way to heaven. As you did for Lisa while she was sick, send the Comforter to this family. Lisa spoke of Angels surrounding her, and comforting her while she was so sick, so Father let that happen again, because you are so merciful, and we praise you for your mercy. Let your presence be blatantly obvious, now and in the months and years to come. Father we pray that all of her family will turn to YOU as their only Salvation for there are not many paths to you, only Your son Jesus, who shed his blood for us. Let them not walk in confusion. Let all of Lisa's family know that they need not mourn, that they should celebrate her new life in YOU. Let them know that Jesus and our Mother and Father, who we deeply miss, siblings and generations of family who passed before us were there to greet and welcome her into everlasting life, and that is to be celebrated, because there is no pain in heaven and her suffering is over. Let them all know that if they want to embrace Lisa again they must come to You through our loving Jesus. And finally Father, help us choose to walk in your presence and choose your ways only, because your Holy Word is the only true path to Wisdom, and everlasting life. You said You are with us always, and we know this to be true. In Jesus Name, Amen. Loving Jesus, Luanne.

She is clothed with strength and dignity. She can laugh at the days to come. She speaks wisdom and faithful instruction are on her tongue. She watches the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children arise and call her blessed, her husband does also praise and respect her. Many women do noble things but you surpass them all! Charm is deceptive and beauty is fleeting, but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised. Give her the reward she deserves and let her works bring her praises at the city gates. pv 31. There comes a point in your life when you realize who matters, who never did, who wont anymore, and who always will. My sweet and strong sister will always be in my heart, and I will embrace her again one day on the other side of the wall.

A human life is a story told by God ~ never to be taken for granted, and always to be celebrated as our time here is short. I wish you all true comfort with your memories of Lisa, and the story of HER life..a special life to so many who knew her. Thinking of you, Brenda  Perhaps they are not the stars, but rather openings in Heaven where the love of our lost ones pours through and shines down upon us to let us know they are happy. ~Author Unknown

Lisa we will miss you SO much. You sure knew how to have fun. And, wow, what an awesome Mom you were -- you understood the power of loving discipline. As each of us search for the value and meaning behind your departure, I will trust that God has gently folded you into his loving arms and whispered calmly in your ear "it's ok, I'm here with you, always"... Please know that your children will be ok. How could they not? They were lucky to have you as their Mother. We miss you.
