Raney, Butch & Maddi: Although we haven't seen Shelby in years, Chuck and I have enjoyed our recent remembrances of her.....her silliness and love of life - she was sooooo funny! (like her mom) She was very smart and we always thought she was actually an adult hiding in a child's body when she was younger! There are no words that could adequately convey the depth of your loss or the sadness we feel for you and Butch as parents - and for Maddi in the loss of her big sister. But knowing that Shelby will live on in the lives of those blessed to receive her organs is of some comfort - - what a selfless and generous act from a wonderful, spirited young lady who will be greatly missed. WE LOVE YOU! Chuck, Beth, Russ & Sarah Weldon

Shelby was amazing and full of life. When Madi and I were little I remember when she was gone we would always sneak into her room to play video games, and when she came home no one would say a word but somehow she knew. She's was almost always smiling and happy. I remember thinking how cool it would be to have an older sister just like her. Yet I learned to settle with my brother. It's an unfortunate event, but it happens quite often. Shelby was free-spirited just as a few of my friends were who have passed on as well. God is with you now more than ever. The hearts of all my family go out to the hearts of all of yours. I am so glad that you have family members that live up here now. Hopefully that will ease some of the burden. I looked at Shelby's facebook page and discovered that she and Katie (my 21 year old) have mutual friends, even though I don't think they knew each other. I am sure that Shelby's friends will be a great comfort to you. If there is anything I can do, please let me know. Angela

Butch and Raney - We have three daughters of our own - words can't explain how much we hurt for you. I ran across this poem a while back: A Million Times You never said I'm leaving You never said good-bye You were gone before I knew it And only God knew why A million times we've needed you, A million times we've cried. If love alone could've saved you, You never would have died. In life we loved you dearly, In death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place, No one else will ever fill. It broke our hearts to lose you, But you didn't go alone. Part of us went with you, The day God took you home. May God in his infinite wisdom see you through these difficult times. Kent and Susan

I was dating Shelby when it happened. I truly loved her and losing her caused such intense pain that my life spiraled out of control for years after. The Lord has helped me heal from that pain and I hope He has done the same for her family. Shelby, you were an amazing woman and you will always be loved! I hope to see you again in glory!
