Jessica I am so sorry that you have had this loss. I know your mother was so sweet and attentive to you. She was one of our best parents and always someone I wanted to see coming in the library. I always keep up with my Smith kids because you are so special. I wish that as time goes by your sorrow is replaced by knowing that you had the best mother in the world. Ms.Price (Juliana)

Jessica and David, Doug and I send you our prayers and loving thoughts. I so enjoyed having Jessica in 6th grade and always looked forward to visiting with Debbie about her daughter's wonderful grades and successes. She so loved her family. We also enjoyed visiting with your family when we met to "catch up." May God's grace and love give you comfort.
