To Bill & Family, I well remember meeting Jean for the first time in my dental office not many years ago. I had the privilege of serving her as her dental hygienist. That first day she somehow managed to share her love for New Heights Church. Her faith was shining in both her face and her words. The next Sunday we visited New Heights for the first time and have not been elsewhere since then. We were looking for the "place to worship" where our Father God wanted us & she led us there. I knew just a few weeks back that I probably would not see her again while here. I am thankful that she wanted her teeth cleaned that day..she & I got to share our hugs and "I love you" that last time. I thank God for that!!! Bill, you were the best, loyal husband one could be. She appreciated you and your love, which was so apparent to all who knew both of you. Believe me, we will miss her so much and offer our sympathy to you very sincerely. Our love and His blessings to all of you, Niolene Stanley
