I loved Helen dearly and she felt the same about me. Helen was one of a kind in the best sense of the term. She was a classy lady and we had some wonderful visits. She loved bingo, houseplants, watching the ducks, and getting her hair done. She would tell me where she grew up. She, her family, and I celebrated her birthday just a few years ago at a restaurant. Some pictures of Helen that I took I will always cherish. Yes, she was a VERY special and unique lady.
