Nellie was loved by everyon in school. I was lucky to have being in school with her during our last three years of high school.After graduation I did not see Nellie but often would hear about her through her other classmate and friends.I know that I will miss her at future reunions, but she will be more deepley mised by those with whom she assocaited in her later life.Our sympathies go out to all of her family and friends. May God comfort you all in the time of this great loss.God bless you all.Frank and Normalee Moreno
