Aunt Loretta was such a gentle and fine lady. She was sharp to her last years and had a great sense of humor. She is so unfortunately the last of her generation in our family and that is a great loss.

I haven't seen Aunt Loretta since I was a child. I did speak to her via phone and letters throughout the years. I felt she was a vibrant, fantastic woman with a bit of an adventuress side. She gave great relationship and life advice. I very much liked and adored her. Long live Aunt Loretta!

I was so glad I was there for her at the end. She always told me she wouldn't die till I was there to hold her hand. We both kept our promise !We went through a lot together, both the good times and the bad. But in truth, we loved each other. I will miss her very much.
