The last message wasn't acceptable!! Susan and I had a strong friendship. I'm kind of in a shock, just as you, her family, but most of all, her Mom whom she told me about her all of the 12 years. I'm sure that you are suffering the loss of wonderful Susan. I have been leaving messages for many days, and finally someone at OGC said she had read the obit. I was shocked! please, anyone tell me what happened! She wanted me to raise Horatio, her companion kitty, if she had to be admitted to the hosp. and when she died, to keep him. He really likes me and he's a wonderful companion animal. Won't someone call me at 751-6983. please help me, her best friend out of this confusion. Your friend in Christ, Barb Evans, please pardon the first tribute- I was thinking only of myself, and not those closer to her. I miss her so much, please listen to her answer machine, I was in a panic, please forgive me.

I knew Susan for over 12 years, I met her at Ogc group therapy and we clicked right away. We went to Village Inn lots and talked on the phone every day. For Christmas I gave her 2 sacks of food and books, then I gifted her with a flannel night gown and a red velvet blouse. I listened to her probs. and she mine. She was my best friend. WHAT HAPPENED!! Why is my friend in heaven? Susan wanted me to take care and keep her cat Horatio from Hamlet, a Shakespeare play name who was a hero, just like Susan tried to fight her way thru life. Barb
