Dear Bill, Joan and Family. Such a pretty girl. Such a bright girl. What a personality! Such a kind heart. Such a loving girl. So much confusion always creating obstacles, keeping her disorganized, unable to focus. Had she learned to control her challenges, she had the potential to become a well educated, well adjusted young woman. You will meet her again on the other side free from the earthly strife you saw her deal with here. So know that she is free from all of that and waiting for you there. I have known Terry all of HER life. It seems it is hardest when we lose the younger ones, I guess because it is least expected. She will be missed. My love to all of you, and let me know if there is anything I can do to make things easier for you. Love, Vicki

We knew Teresa from her being a part of our Overcomers' Recovery Support Group and visited with her inside the jail and after she had been released. In this time of your loss, our prayer is that God will wrap His love around you like a blanket and that You will feel His presence, comfort, and peace. Love and Blessings, Donna Helms
