Don (The Kid) posted:

Juanita has always been a source of inspiration and guidance. She always devoted lots of time to church and animal projects. Mission programs at Lakeside always seemed to be originated by her. She was always understanding and caring when dealing with my teenage dilemmas. She and Ray always made time to help if I had a stalled car in Oklahoma or needed a youth sponsor to go with us on a Youth Service trip. I have many wonderful pictures in my photo album of fun summer projects I did with them each each summer.

I'll always be grateful to Juanita for her fine example of southern hospitality. From the beautiful bridal shower she hosted for me before my wedding to Don, to keeping me in the summer and on weekends before we were married, to her daily examples of lovely attire and gracious manners, she was a glorious lady. Her devotion to Ray and their good natured bantering made it seem like 60 plus years of marriage was easy. She set a great example in many ways, and we'll miss her.

So sorry for your loss. She was a real fine teacher and person. I felt lucky to have had her in 1950 (I think). Sincerely, Kay Shapiro
