I met and worked with Joyce several years ago when she was appointed administrator of a family member's estate. She was a very stong lady and I enjoyed working with her very much. I am very sorry to hear of her passing.

Our relationship with Virginia was always a professional relationship as her tax preparer. Virginia was a very pleasant and kind person even though we usually only saw her at tax time, which is not a good time for most people. Virginia will be missed by everyone in this office.

We were sad to hear of the death of Joyce. We remember fun times around the camp fire during hunting season and trips to the lake during the summer. We all had pickups, followed by camper trailers, and tagging a boat along behind that. What a convoy. What fun we had. Joyce was a wonderful lady. Leonard and Everta
