You were there for me when my father died, I remember you trying to console me and to make me feel better. I will never forget you for taking care of me. You were the same way when we lost mother. You just did what you all ways did you never missed calling us on holidays, and that made me feel so much better just to know you were there and you never forgot us. We loved you so much, John & Ada We love you Aunt Pat & the kids also.

Just heard of Tom's passing. We are so sorry for your loss. I just wanted to drop a quick note to say how much Tom meant to my brother Gary. They became quite close while you owned the little house in Crosses. I believe Tom was a great source of strength for my brother. Gary passed away suddenly in 2001. Tom went right away and spent some time with my mother. I know his words of comfort and prayers meant a great deal to her. God Bless You All Vicky Mesplay
