I was so surprised and saddened to read in the paper of Ms. Cornett's death. I had just seen her a few weeks ago to check her ears and her hearing aids. On that visit to our office, she was in good spirits and so excited that her husband was now her roommate at The Maples. We talked about her family that lived in Georgetown, Round Rock, and Rogers. I had moved to Rogers in 1999 after having lived in Austin, TX for 15 years. She was always such a pleasure to visit with while servicing her hearing aids. We will all miss her and send our deepest sympathies. Sincerely, Dawn
