Dearest Mark and Family~ My children and I share your sorrow at this most difficult time. We remember Vicki so willingly spent many hours doing research for the family genealogy book. The result of the effort she put forth in assisting you, Mark, and Brian, made the entire family grateful for, as well as proud of, the "treasure" of information made available to us. I know my children and I truly appreciate Vicki for having worked so tirelessly on the project. She was much admired for the work she did and will long be remembered. Please know our thoughts, prayers and love are with you all.

Mark:Even though I have been gone from CRG and Fayetteville for well over a decade, I want you to know I remember Vicki very well. She was the epitome of strength & devotion in her role as loving wife and mother. My hope for you is that one day when the pain and grief have lessened, you will come to cherish and celebrate the 30 plus years she was by your side.....to Brian, Lauren and Rachel, my deepest sympathy.Linda Wolf

I am a better person for having known Vicki. From her, I learned some real life skills: patience, hard work, determination and love. She loved her husband, her children and she loved me. It is one the great rewards of my life to have had that love and to have returned it. She always said we had to be sisters and I have always felt she was right.I can only imagine the depth of grief that Marc and her children must feel. I feel devastated.Nancy

I pray your grief can be short and memories of the good can become a jewel to you. That love will surround you and take the place of void. That the days ahead will be for you blessed. Now may the Lord of peace Himself grant you His peace at all times. 2 Thessalonians 3:16

Dear Mark: I was sorry to hear about the passing of your wife. We here in South Carolina can not be with you at this time, but we are praying for you and your family at this time of bereavement. When I am feeling low this scripture helps me to get through: Psalms 121:1, 2 - I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills which cometh my help. My help cometh from the Lord which made heaven and earth. When I think about how our God made the heaven and earth, I think that he can handle any situation that comes up in my life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. God bless, Ivy Boles

Mark, Elda and I send our deepest sympathy to you, your son and daughters, and her family. We are so sorry to hear of your loss. We will be praying for all of you in your time of need. May God Bless You, Comfort You, and Protect You all.. Herbert and Elda Pratt. John 14:1- "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me."
