This wonderful lady will be missed by numerous people. She was another grandmother for our 3 children while we lived in Farmington. God bless her always.

My Dear sweet Maxine, I have so many fond memories of you that I can never get them all on this page. You were a very special lady who taught me to always think about others. Everytime I eat grapes I will think of you because you thought I needed grapes every week and you bought them for me. You were a very giving, kind hearted lady who made many friends and you will be missed by everyone. I know you are trying to feed the Angels some grapes right now. I love you.
