I know this is very late, but I was in a serious car accident in January, hospitalized for weeks, and only recently did I hear of Harriet's passing. I worked with her at NWACC, teaching Spanish. She was a fascinating and talented person. The world would be a better place with more people like her.

I am in a writer's group in Rogers where Harriet was also a member. She held the writing standards high and reached them herself. Harriet had a beautiful, creative mind and I am so sorry that we did not have more time with her -- or that she did not have more time to share her special insight and vision of the world. My condolences and prayers to the family.

Dear Family of Harriet Hamilton, I was saddened to learn of Harriet's death by the notice in the Morning News. Since I do not have the addresses of David, Catrina or Francesca or her mother Dorothy Newton, I am using this form to express my deepest sympathy for your loss. I first met Harriet when she was my Spanish teacher at NWArk Community College and later knew her as a fellow writer in the Community Writers Guild of NW Arkansas. She graciously critiqued two of my books that are now in print and I did the same for her. She was a brilliant writer and I believe a book was in process. Harriet always added an energetic spark to any gathering. I will miss her very much as a friend and mentor. God bless, Barbara

Harriet was a generous woman with a great sense of humor, and I always enjoyed seeing her when she came to the library. The young adult fiction writer's market has lost an insightful and dedicated artist, and the Fayetteville community, a lovely woman.

I have missed my friend, Harriet, for all of these years. It has been ten years since her passing and I still think of her funny quick wit, sparkling eyes, and infectious laugh. Oh Harriet, I am remembering you with much joy in my heart! God Bless You! I am so glad your time on earth included crossing my path!
