First off- congratulations to Amber on her new little soul. Now, I only met Charlie once, but he seemed like a really cool guy... me and Jake went over to his house and hung out. I barely met Amber, when we got there she was just on her way to work. Charlie gave me those little 'kissable' candies. He was really nice, and funny. I keep asking myself why this had to happen... I guess only the good die young. He will be remembered by all. Rest In Peace.-Sage.

Words cannot express what we feel. Samantha and I loved Charlie so much. He was our rock, our friend, and part-time Dad to Samantha. Charlie loved his family so much. I have never met a finer man. He cared about everyone and did whatever he could, if he could. We always knew when he was coming from the sound of his car. I am pretty sure he is playing the music really loud in heaven. Charlie and Amber's baby is beautiful and has really black hair like Charlie (would have had)... :-)
Charlie, we love you and miss you and will see you again!!!!Aunt Jeane and Cousey Sam

I was sad to hear what had happened. I hope you can endure and grow stronger for the future. Charles was the type of person to tell it to you straight, and always had an ear to lend. He was devoted to his family and so while he rest above, know he smiles. He was a good friend to me for the short period of time we knew each other.

Charlie kept me out of a good deal of trouble in highschool. He had true devotion to his friends. I regret not being able to pay him his due respect in a timely fashion. Happy memories of him are greatly abundant. I would also like to convey Thomas Spindel's dear appreciation of him as well. Tom is understandably grieved at his passing, as we all from L.V. are as well. We love and miss him. May he be in a better place as he watches over those that are dear to him.

He was always the life of the party to say. He brought so much joy into the life of so many of us through out the years. I can remember all the good times all of us shared together growing up here in Las Vegas. I can say for many of us he was a true friend and always there when we needed him the most. My condolences go out to the Knight family. He will be dearly missed. God Bless his Wife, Daughter, and Family. You will be in my thoughts, and prayers.

Charlie and Amber took in my step-son when he most needed a new start. They were always there for him and I appreciate everything they did to try and keep him straight and out of trouble. He is saddened as well, and wanted me to forward his condolences. Though I knew Charlie only a short time I grew quite fond of him and I know how excited he was about becoming a father. Amber, if there is anything we can do for you, even though we are far away, please call and let me know. Keep hold of his memories and pass them on to your daughter. I am truly sorry for your loss and wish you the best in this hard time. Please remember that we are thinking of you and remembering Charlie in our hearts forever.
