It has been my pleasure to work with Janet these past several years; she began here working as my assistant, and I was her trainer in the beginning. As we are the same age, we had many good times discussing our kids, music, the 50's - whatever! I've watched her boys grow and mature, and have enjoyed Janet's friendship very much. My love to the family.

Janet was a wonderful person with a charming smile and lovely bass voice. She was always on the bright side of anything our chorus ever did and you could tell how much joy she received from singing barbershop harmony. She will be missed by all her Sweet Adeline Sisters.
