I met your kids and Norma's granddaughter at Dex's funeral, after hearing of all of you for so many years out at the Moose Lodge. You mom will be so very missed. We always loved watching her and Dex dance their waltz on the dance floor. It was like they were dancing in the air or on a sheet of glass. I can see her dancing in heaven, again with Dex, and just as light as ever. I was so very sorry to hear of her passing, more for the fact that we won't get to see her again here in this live, but I do know that is selfishness on my part. I just wanted to express my condolences to your and your family, and if there is ever anything I can do, please just let me know.
