I was deeply saddened to learn of Ara passing on. I am so thankful that I had her in my life in younger years, she and her daughter, Tena and her Dad Bob, were responsible for a very large part of who I became in adulthood. My memories of Ara, Tena and Bob are some of the best I have and I often think back to those get togethers of long ago at the farmhouse in Bergman with affection and laughter. Ara will be missed very much by her "second kid". Tena, Thank you for sharing your wonderful mom with me for all of those years in our childhood. God Bless you. If you need anything please let me know. Love Always, Renee
