What a great picture of your Mom, Craig. she gives the viewer the impression she enjoyed life, with a sense of humor. Is that where you got yours from? I would like to believe that you will have a lot of fond memories of life with your Mother to reflect on in the coming days and years! Cherish those memories, ponder them often, and share them with your kids. I remember well a statement made a number of years ago: "life will trash our trophies and no one will care about our successes in our work. The only thing that matters that will last forever is who we love, who loved us and how we serve the Lord together".

Hello Carly, Christopher and all of your family. I enjoyed viewing the pictureboard that showed a peek into the life of your grandma. What a beautiful woman she was! I know she touched your lives and those of many in a huge way. I am so sorry for your painful loss, but thankful for the joy she brought to all of you. Carly, take all the time you need. All of you, travel safely back to your homes. God bless you as you remember and begin to heal. Vicki

Dear Uncle Royal, Debbie, Craig and Ross and families, My sense of disbelief cannot be expressed and I am very sad to hear of the death of someone who seemed somewhat like the big sister I never had. She helped Mom and Dad name me and was always very special to me. Please know that you have been and will continue to be in my prayers during these difficult days and those yet to come. Lovingly and Prayerfully, Vangie and Paul Webb

Our condolences are with all of you. May God give you strength and increase your faith for someday we will meet Marcella. Marcella and I used to celebrate our birthdays together since my birthday is Sept 26, 1928. I remember the many good times we shared in West Fargo and our visit with you in Fayetteville a few years ago. It was great to see Craig and meet his wife when we attended Lisa Kahler's wedding last November. In Christian love, Darline Bill

Our deepest sympathy to all of you. I know how difficult it is to not have her here with you. But the day will come when we will all meet again and that day will be good! Marcie had the cutest shyest looking smile that made you feel welcome the moment you met her. Her soft spokenness and elegant beauty is a trait she has passed on to her daughter and grand-daughters. I'm sorry we can't come down there. But please know that we are holding you tight in our hearts during this difficult time. I sent a special angel your way. Love, Al & Debbie Taylor
