Cleda and my Dad (Hubert R. Goodman Sr.) grew up together and were more like brother and sister than First cousins. I will always cherish the many memories of my visits with them. Jim would always play and sing and show us the many antique oddities he had collected over the years. Cleda always made us feel more than welcome. I will never forget her or her beautiful long black hair. Jerry

Cleta was related to my grandmother Atha Goodman. I remember as a child Jimmy & Cleta visiting our house often, Jimmy purchased the old home place in Timbo from my grandmother Atha. I moved to Indiana in 1961. But every summer when my husband and I visit Arkansas on vacation Jimmy & Cleta's house was always one of our stops. They always made us feel warm and welcome, Jimmy always played and sang for us. Cleta and I would reminisce about my grandmother. Cleda will always be remembered in a very warm way. And missed very much. Ola

I used to be a regular performer at the Jimmy Driftwood Barn, when both, Jimmy and Cleda were still there... I miss them both!

I did a report in 1980 on your uncle Jimmy for a class my sophomore year in high school, and him and your aunt was wonderful at sending me tons of information on him. They were truly a special couple and I know my aunt Moniaco thought a lot of them. They lived across the road from her. My deepest sympathy during your time of loss. God be with each of you.
