Mrs. Bryant was gracious enough to allow me the opportunity to interview her for my master's thesis on the African American community of Happy Hollow in Cane Hill.

I am the receptionist at the PG TELCO. I never actually met Addie face to face, but I have had many conversations with her on the telephone. Even when she was upset, she always ended our conversations on a positive note. Many times we would get side tracked and discuss many different things. I will truly miss her and her conversations, and especially her "God Bless you Babydoll". She was a dear Lady.
