Gary, Jody, Zack, Zane and Family Please know our thoughts and prayers are with you during this difficult time. Welcome Home I know you will be missing me Now I am out of sight But dry your silent tears lass For I have found the light I have this guardian angel Who stands right by my side And together we watch over you Brimming with maternal pride As a child I dried your tears I chased away all your darkest fears But that part of my life has now passed me by I have no wings, yet still I can fly I walked through that door they opened for me Into a light so white, I had a job to see And when my eyes got used to the light For what I saw was sheer delight For in a rather large group, waiting there Were all the people for whom I care A single voice said, "welcome home" You'll no longer need that skin and bone See the spirit lives on, in a land with no crime And you can visit your kin from time to time And although they are sad now that you are gone In memory and their thoughts you will live on So you see my child, not one more tear For where I am, there is no fear Just think of me and I will be there Amidst your memories that we still share. I remember Buddy and Annie from the DeValls Bluff School. They were really great classmates. I see they have raised a family like the rest of us, worked and gotten older. It still seems like we should be the "Kids". instead of the older generation.I use to watch the Ulm news in the paper to see if it mentioned Buddy and Annie visiting her relations in Ulm. I use to envy them getting to live in Northwest Arkansas.Just Sunday night at church, Troy Tacker and I were talking about Buddy and Annie and the last time he saw them.Sincerely,AltaMy sympathy to the family.
