One could not ask for a more loving and giving mother. I will always remember her smile. My mom was as gentle a mother as one could want. She devoted her life to her family and always put us first. I rode my Harley out last May to visit her and we had a lot of fun during my visit. I can still see her face when I drove up in the rain and she saw how soaked I was from the ride in. She had a grin on her face that was absolutely beautiful. Her first question was, "are you O.K., you look like a renched puppy. I was out to see her again and left for home a couple of days before her passing. I will always remember the smile on her face and tears in both of our eyes, when I said good bye. I hoped to be able to see her pull through, but knew in the back of my mind that this might be my last time to see her alive. Mom, I love you and will miss you. Your loving son, Mike

Mary & I shared some special time together on the occasion of our shared granddaughter's first birthday in September 2003. We both expressed that we were not jealous of the other grandmother. I expressed to her how much it meant to me that our Little Beth had her close by, since I lived so far away. I am grateful for the time I spent with Mary and when our Little Beth gets oldr, I will be sure to tell her about her other grandma.
