Terrie Webb

JUN 17, 1950 - OCT 25, 2003

Miss Terrie Webb, 53 of Fayetteville, AR passed away Saturday, October 25, 2003 in Fayetteville. She was born June 17, 1950 in Little Rock, AR to Thompson B. and Patricia C. (Crawford) Webb. She was a retired restaurant owner and a Presbyterian. Terrie had a lifelong interest in Art, ceramics, pottery, and fine food.

Terrie was always gentle and friendly. She never hurt another person and took little note of any unkindness that came her way. She loved a wide variety of music, collected pottery and art, and enjoyed fine food. She was an excellent and creative cook. She made many friends who have stayed close to her despite the passage of time and the separation of space. She treasured friendship and her family above everything. And because of all of this she was greatly loved by those who knew her.

She was physically strong and worked hard. She was endlessly curious about life and where she would find her place in the world. She went to college for a few years, worked at a variety of jobs, refurbished an charming bungalow with the help of her parents and friends, started a popular restaurant, and experienced success and loss with equal equanimity. Her place in this life, as it turned out, was to be in the center of a crowd of people who returned her radiant love. Her parents cared for her in their home and over time others helped them and became devoted to Terrie as a friend, because she gave them much more in kindness and laughter than she asked in care.

The great struggle of her life was with relentless illness which for so many years could not tire or sadden her. She never complained and she accepted loss with cheerfulness and humor. In the last 10 years she had to part with many precious things and she did so without regret or question. Her steadfast courage spared those near her from pain and gave them instead hope and affection for her.

Although I hadn't seen Terrie since she moved from Normandy Drive in Jackson, I thought of her often and am saddened to hear that she suffered from breast cancer in addition to the MS. She had accepted her condition with MS with grace and good humor, and I can only believe that she is now in heaven.

Precious Lord, Take My Hand by Thomas A. Dorsey verse 1 - Precious Lord, take my hand, lead me on help me stand. I am tired, I am weak, I am worn. Through the storm, through the night, lead me on to the light. Take my hand, precious Lord; lead me home. verse 2 - When my way grows drear, precious Lord, linger near - when my life is almost gone. Hear my cry, hear my call. Hold my hand lest I fall. Take my hand, precious Lord, lead me home. Pat and T., Here's the tune I played for the service. Terrie, I love you! Always, Robin

I'm writing to let you know that the Sewell family here in North Carolina is keeping your family in our prayers. I have been blessed to know some truly fine people in my life and I count myself lucky to have grown up next door to the Webb family. My Mom and Dad loved your family and loved Terrie. I wish every day they were still here. I know that if they were, they would be grieving right now for your loss and giving thanks for the friendship our families have shared. Bill

I recall fun bridge games with Terry, Pat & Syble. One bridge game night when I was afraid to enter my dark empty house alone, Terry went in, looked under beds, then assured me & Pat there was nothing to fear. She taught me not to be so fearful. I think our Lord says now to Terry "Fear not, for I am with you". God bless you and grant you peace. We care and share good memories. Love, Micki

I look back to the many years that Terrie and the Webb family were fixtures in my life. I reflect on the kinship, the laughter, the joy, and the mischief we shared. My reflections..... Camping out in the backyard. Driving around the block one more time because a favorite song was on the car radio. Cooking 'gourmet' dishes. (Tommy would not eat!) Tying the 2 man life raft on top of the VW bug....headed to the reservoir. Sunday afternoon softball games at the Reservoir. Painting the house white (then it rained) Favorite song: Higher And Higher Things that will mean nothing to others, but will connect us forever. My heartfelt love to all for being such a wonderful part of my life.

A flood of wonderful memories came to me when I read Terrie's obituary. I am so stunned and sorry for your loss. Terrie and I were friends "way back when" the Dog n Suds, the Carmangia and big Bonnie were so much fun. We came home with ticks all over us from the grands' place. We smoked cigs in the "privacy" of your garage and just knew Mr. Webb, MR. FBI, would have us arrested! We spent weekends overnighing at your house on Pear Orchard and had so much fun. Mrs. Webb was always so patient and elegant. Oh, what a life we had back then! I will always celebrate Terrie's life!

May God bless you and your family. Y'all are in our hearts and prayers. I'm sorry for our loss. Margo and I will never forget the fun times on Pear Orchard with our next door extended family---the Webb's. Just visiting back and forth to each other's home. Y'all were sooo much fun. And Mr. Webb always had a story (FBI) to tell. What we remember the most are--Terrie's laughter-Pup and Jock-Shallie-Cat-Terrie's going to the Dog&Suds and getting a coney dog -the Karmen Ghia-the hot Bonneville (maroon I think)-Terrie and Mike May making 'mud patty boobs' while we all played in the drained pond at NorthPointe (across the street)-visiting her grandfolks on Hwy 469. That seemed like the longest trip. Wish I lived out there now. So pretty. We could go on and on. We love Terrie. Y'all will always be in our hearts and Mama loves hearing from you (Mrs. Webb) Pat and Margo

Terrie had the rare quality of consistency. Her character and constitution were always persistent. Fortunately that character was outstanding. Seeking my Sleeping Sister
Again I hold my sister's hand...she is almost gone again
And the old question comes..."Where is she now?"
Is she the wounded deer panting in the shade of the thicket?
Is she sitting with her divine mentor parsing the sum of this life?
Is she somewhere regaining the tireless legs of her unbound youth?
Is she, precious, dissolving to fill the mold of another breathless soul?
Is she now in the eager mass receiving the redemption of promises and loss?
Her fingers flicker, another breath crosses the bridge of questions.
She has passed beyond belief or fear to before asking or telling, to hide and seek, where we began.
