Dear Mosler Family:I never had the pleasure of meeting your husband and father. I understand from many of our common acquaintances that he was a very kind person, who never knew a stranger.I just wanted you to know that many people are thinking of you, and praying for God to comfort your family at this difficult time. Your Dad lives on in all of you children, and what a blessing that is!Kindest Regards,Tracee "Grammer" Williams

We will miss Shorty, He has been a great part of our lives. When he ran Dot's Cafe it was the first restraunt we brought our son to after his birth. Shorty was the kindest person there is. He will be greatly missed by all of us in the Cave Springs Community. We will always remember him when we look outside the office and see the beautiful roses he planted years ago.
