I was in shock as I was driving in my car and hearing the devastating news. I convinced myself it wasn't John, a student of my first year of teaching, only to be crying soon after confirming the news. I was fortunate to get to see John with his wife and newborn at Wal-Mart. What an amazing family. It was thrilling to see how he "grew up." Still the same young man with exceptional manners and a shy smile. We had a chuckle bc his daughter was about the same age as my newest edition. I pray for all of you and think about your loss daily. Boy, what the world is missing without JOHN.
