Anne, I am so sorry to hear that Curtis has passed. I so much enjoyed seeing you two and visiting & laughing with you at auctions. You were such a special couple. Sometimes I start thinking of some people as "family"; you two were like that to me. When I would get to Williams Auction and notice you sitting in your chairs and see Curtis in his overalls, seemed to me that things were okay in the world! I wish you the very best in the days to come. Hugs, Martha

So sorry to hear about your dad. I remember him during the 1960s when I attended Jefferson with Chuck, your dad always had a smile and wave when I rode by on my bike. Keep all your memories close and you will never be alone.
