I still don't have the words to say to completely understand all of this and probably never will. All I know is that I absolutely love you to the ends of the world. This world just will never be the same with your smile and that huge laugh of yours that always filled the room with happiness. Get some rest and say hi to your dad, Granny & Papa for me. Love you forever cuz! - Jake King

Alison came into my family's life many years ago. She was in kindergarten with my oldest daughter Justine. Together they could be the life of any party and just being around Alison was always a delight! She was like one of my own. I have so many things and thoughts running through my head I can't put into words how much my life will be forever changed not being able to stare at those big beautiful eyes and get those soft hugs I loved so much! I love you Alison! You have so many friends that will love and miss you!
