Pop was as Randy Lynch told me "one of a kind" and there needs to be a lot more like him. He was also one of the toughest men I have ever had the honor of knowing. He faced adversity like no other. He met it and you during it with a smile and a sneaky grin. He had another attribute that I admire greatly and that was it did not matter your station in life, the superintendent, or the bus driver, you were equal to pop, and neither one had immunity from his humor. He will be greatly missed May God bless and comfort the family!

POP was a cherished friend for many years. We shared good times boiling shrimp, barbecuing hogs, and attending countless Farmington athletic events. He did so much for Farmington school, Farmington city, and Farmington youth and never wanted anything in return. I remember watching Pop, Bill Sellers, John Carter and many others play basketball for Farmington. They did it very well. Pop will never be replaced. It was a joy and an honor knowing him.
