Camille Lucia Newell

NOV 8, 1979 - FEB 7, 2022

Camille S. Fairlane (Ramsey Newell), 42, of Fayetteville, Arkansas passed away on February 3, 2022.

Born November 8th, 1979, in Los Osos, California, Camille spent her life pursuing new experiences and passions around the country, gaining friends and community in California, Georgia, Oregon, Kansas, and Arkansas.

She was a certified travel agent and worked for Delta Airlines, Newcorp, Asurion, Walmart, and Genpact in her career.

She enjoyed volunteering with La Leche League, ICAN, and the NWA Women's Shelter. Her love of Disney and theme parks was well known and brought her much happiness to share with her beloved children.

Camille is survived by her children Sean, Stella, and Andrew; her mother Lucia Iole (Doshier); her siblings, David (Vanessa), Annie, Emily, Brendan, and Daniel; stepbrothers, Jonas and Samson; and extended family and friends.

In memoriam, donations may be made to Arkansas Children's Hospital, Ronald McDonald House, and NWA Women's Shelter. Cremation arrangements are by Nelson Bern Funeral Home.

My name is Stella, currently going by Astrid as of 2022. As the daughter of her, I will miss her dearly. She was such a nice soul, and it hurts me that I never got to say goodbye before she passed. She was always so cheery, even when she was sad or was smoking outside. I loved her with all my heart, and still do. I remember when I was with her making little vanilla cakes with strawberries, and never sharing them with the boys. Oh god.. I miss you so much.. I hoped and begged that you'd get better and that moving, but I guess not everything in life works out how you want it to. Sean, Andrew, and I miss you so much. ❤️

Looking back on this is making me think that maybe adding some parts in there weren't the best. 😊

My name is Bianca, I haven't seen or talked to Camille in a really long time, but I was best friends with Emily in our younger days. My older sister and Camille were good friends, the 4 of us were always together. We had the funest times doing silly things. Staying up late on weekends drinking coffee lol. Listening to music always, just hanging out being kids. She did have the best laugh ever, if she was laughing, we all were laughing 😊 She taught us younger girls the important things we needed to know lol! Sad to hear you've gone so soon! I miss you! I miss all of you and have been trying to get ahold of you throughout the years. Please get ahold of me if you choose to Bucknbianca@gmail.com

I met Camille at a time when she was full of life. Her laughter was contagious and we shared the enjoyment of dancing our butts off. I choose to remember her during those times. Though it's so important, I feel, to acknowledge her struggle in the past few years. Though I desperately wished she would have recovered in order to enjoy a longer and joyous life again, I am most thankful to have witnessed and been a part of her life to see that life treated her well for a time. Thank you for showing me and others how to make the most of this life while you were here. Rest well, Dancing Queen

I am so lucky to have known Camille over the years and been a part of this beautiful family that extends and extends. May her children continue to feel the grace of their mother through this family in years to come. I remember her as a young mother and then sharing our motherhood as we both experienced heart conditions in our children. I am thankful she put the topper on Jonas and my -ella niece tribe (Bella, Ella and finally Stella.. not to mention nephew Dell). It feels surreal as Jonas has just seen her for the first time in a long time. I am glad they had those last happy moments together. Love from me and Jonas to Camille and to all of the family.

Rest in Peace, Camille ❤️ My big sister ❤️ She was an adept writer of poems, a big creative influence on me. We loved riding rollercoasters together, attending concerts, cracking insane jokes, doing Mad Libs until our cheeks and bellies hurt from laughing so hard, long Scrabble games (she always won!), exploring abandoned buildings, we had a blast. Her sense of humor will be sorely missed. I love you, sister ❤️

Omg the flippin mad libs 🤪🤪🤪 those were the best!!! I've done them with my son's in the past, making sure to tell them stories of how much fun we used to have. My son's loved them, especially Vince 😊 I miss you Camille!!! I miss you too Emily!!! I've lost you again 😭😭😭 Idk how?? I'm sorry!!! Contact me please, if you didn't lose me on purpose, if you did, I am saddened, but I understand 😞 I really do. I love you!! I love you too Camille ❤️
