Georgia Ann Caselman

APR 25, 1941 - MAR 14, 2023

Georgia Ann Caselman, age 81, of Farmington, Arkansas passed away Tuesday March 14, 2023. She was born April 25, 1941 in Prairie Grove, Arkansas to George and Imogene Mout. She was preceded in death by her father before her birth and her mother Imogene Jamison Ledgerwood, and her father, Charlie Jamison; son in law, Ed Chappell and her granddaughter, Lacey Chappell.

Georgia and Randall met in the 7th grade and graduated Fayetteville High School together in 1959. They were married the same year at Center Street Church of Christ, where she taught 3rd and 4th grade Bible Class for over 25 years. She and Randall enjoyed working with the youth for 15 years at Center Street as well. Except for a 4 year stint in Tulsa OK, they have lived in Northwest AR their entire lives. They raised their children on a farm in Farmington, where they all still live. Georgia and Randall moved to Bella Vista in 1986 where they began their ministry at the Bella Vista Church of Christ. While at Bella Vista, she taught 3rd grade, 4th grade, and ladies Bible Classes. She taught teens and ladies Bible Classes in Cape Town and Johannesburg for 3 separate mission trips to South Africa. During her life she had many health issues and met them with faith and resilience. Georgia continued to support Randall's ministry even in her years of Dementia. She was an assistant librarian and teaching assistant for the Bentonville School system for over 25 years. Georgia had a special affinity for children with learning challenges.

Georgia desired for her children and grandchildren to have childhoods to the fullest- full of love, fun, adventure, learning, and growth. They all remember the annual trips to the Tulsa Ballet Nutcracker and the Dixie Stampede in Branson, as well as the frequent trips to Barnes and Noble and Chick-fil-A. Her children and grandchildren remember their mother and grandmother for her strong support of education, creativity, and reading. She used to give her grandchildren a penny for each page read. She facilitated a sense of curiosity and awe by accompanying her children and grandchildren on exciting and interesting educational experiences. Her passion for learning never ceased.

Georgia was fiercely protective and loving of her people and had high expectations for their character and growth. Her family and church spoke often of her warm smile and her signature hugs. Her daughter in law remembers her for accompanying her to Bolivia to help with her grandchildren. Georgia lived out the verse she had engraved in Randall's wedding band, "For where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people, and your God my God."

Georgia always had an unwavering faith in God and her family. She lived out her faith in word and deed, especially in her support of Randall's ministry. Georgia loved Jesus and her Heavenly Father, and instilled and nourished that love in countless lives. She will always be loved and missed dearly by all who knew her.

She is survived by her husband of 63 years, Randall Caselman; two daughters, Karen McGee and her husband Greg of Farmington; Kathy Chappel of Farmington; on son, Keith Caselman and his wife Ana of Farmington; seven grandchildren, Joshua McGee, Hannah McLaurin, Carrie Waggoner, Gabrielle Embry Caselman, Alexandra Caselman, Ana Sofia Caselman, and Luis Caselman; six great grandchildren, Elie McLaurin, Myles McLaurin, Eva McGee, Kenyan Waggoner, Kaylee Youngblood and Lainey Waggoner.

Visitation will be 5:00 pm - 7:00 pm Monday, March 20, 2023, at Center Street Church of Christ in Fayetteville. Funeral service will be 2:00 pm Tuesday at Bella Vista Church of Christ with burial to follow in Sunset Cemetery near Winslow under the direction of Moore's Chapel.

Memorial contributions may be made to Gospel Tracts International, 2125 North Center Street, Fayetteville, Arkansas 72701.

Many fond memories of the times we spent in Fayetteville High School and Center Street Church of Christ. She endured a full school year of me sitting behind her and pestering her in Mrs. Heflin's English class. We have not communicated through the years except for our occasional visits to the Bella Vista Church. But it was always a joy to see the success of the ministry that she and Randall shared there.
