Lidia Haydee Segura

OCT 10, 1940 - JUN 22, 2023

Our wonderful mother left this earth to meet her LORD and Savior on the evening of June 22, 2023. She was held by Dad, a thankful husband of 54 years.

She passed hearing our dad's prayer for the wonderful life they had together. As Papi hugged Nana during her final moments, he said a prayer.

He thanked the Lord for all the blessings they shared together. He thanked the Lord for all their grandchildren. He thanked the Lord for the good. He thanked the Lord for the bad.

Nana passed surrounded by family, listening to hymns. Which she was fond of, but this isn't the end.

No- it isn't. Nana isn't dead. She is alive with God in heaven.

God has prepared a place for her.

One day, we will all be reunited, praising The Lord together. One day, it may be near, or it may be far- we will hear the words that Nana heard this day.

"Well Done, My Good and Faithful Servant."

Haydee Segura was survived by her husband Jose Segura; sisters, Margoth Estrada and Estela Belloso; brother, Luis Vargas; son, Rafael Segura and daughter-in-law, Sandy; daughter, Julia McKinney and son-in-law, Robert; grandson, Nicolas Segura; and granddaughters, Katherine McKinney and Katie Isabelle Segura.

Funeral services will be 3:00 p.m., Friday, July 7, 2023, at Nelson-Berna Funeral Home in Fayetteville, Arkansas. Visitation will be from 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., Friday, July 7, 2023, at

We sat behind Pastor Segura and his lovely wife Lidia for many years at UBC. She was always so kind and caring toward us, loving on and fussing over my children. I loved the relationship between Pastor Segura: complete love and trust on both sides. What rejoicing there must have been when Lidia entered heaven's gates! Prayers of comfort and peace for the family.
