What are some things that I can say about Mary? Well, a few years back, we were neighbors. One day, I went out for a cigarette, and we started talking, right away, we became close friends.... we would go to her house to have a walking dead night and sometimes just to enjoy each other's company, Mary was always such a great friend and really was there when you needed her and she was fantastically funny, always made everyone around her laugh, I am happy to have known such a kind soul and will miss her deeply. Rest in Heaven, my dear friend. ❤️
