I was Jim and Margie's Pastor for several years. She was my trainer at Walmart years ago. She was an amazing and beautiful woman filled with peace and joy. She will truly be missed.

My favorite memory of My sister Margie is when I was about 8 or 9. We didn't have much money so no toys or anything. Margie bought me my one and only doll from money she had earned from babysitting and chores, ( she was about 14. ). I remember the joy and awe I felt at the time. But that was Margie, always giving. I didn't get to spend much time around her growing up I so wish I had. She was an awesome sister and person. ❤️❤️

Margie worked for me and both her and Jim went to church with us. Such a precious woman of God. She had the sweetest spirit and everyone loved her.

Margie was 1 year and 2 months older than me and she was my big sister and playmate when we were young. At the age of 9 or 10 we had a cousin come to visit us his name was Freddie and he was our age. Well both of us fell madly in love with him but he could care less and climbed a tree and got on top of our garage and Margie being the tallest of us two could step high enough to get on a branch to also climb up the tree to get on the garage with him. Well she made it up there turned a gave me the biggest smile when I couldn't get up there. We often laughed about our first crush and how I went and told mama and she came out and made them come down. She eventually forgave me for tattling on her. I'm going to miss her so much. 😞
