This is my beautiful mommy. I have too many memories to share. I'm the only one left that can mentally keep the memories alive and passed on from my original family. My mommy missed her husband and first born son so much. There was really no Jack without Flossie and no Flossie without Jack. I'll see them soon enough but not soon enough. I'll love you forever mommy, o hope that I was a good daughter. Eternally grateful to you, Sissy.

I met your Mommy at Copy King when you and I worked there together back in the early 90's. I remember she had the biggest smile and was super funny. You could tell she love you very much.

I knew both Jack and Flossy for years...met them first in the 1950's at Church (Revival Tabernacle). I am so sorry for your loss, may God comfort your family. She was a precious lady.
