My mother hates this but he used to take on ride along, when he was a Sherrif I got to see things normal people do not get to see. I learned how to drive when I was young, my father would tell me to just keep it straight and follow the road inf first gear. I also remember the first hunt I was able go on with the adults He never missed a ball game that I can remember he was a great father and I miss him terrible. Thank you for so many second chances. Love your son

Larry was an excellent tour guide when we visited in Idaho. He really got into it. I think he missed his calling. Loved his sense of humor, his love for his family, and his cooking. He found a carousel at the zoo which was in need of repair and reconstruction. He raised the money and it is a monument to his dedication to community.
