Corby Allen Bradt

MAR 20, 1949 - AUG 13, 2025

Corby, beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother, and son, passed away peacefully on August 13, 2025, surrounded by the family he cherished beyond all else.

His life was a testament to love, faith, hard work, and devotion - qualities that touched everyone who had the privilege to know him. Born in Freedom and raised with deep roots in western Oklahoma, Corby learned the art of fishing and hunting from his father, James, a respected county commissioner. These skills became more than hobbies; they were traditions he joyfully passed on to his sons and grandchildren, creating countless memories.

A man of remarkable strength and unwavering compassion, Corby found his calling in building custom homes. He took great pride in every beam, nail, and detail - crafting not just houses, but lasting legacies for the families who would call them home.

Above all, Corby loved his wife, Cyndi with every beat of his heart. He chose her every single day, without hesitation, caring for her with the same dedication and tenderness that defined their life together. Their love story was one of deep commitment, quiet acts of devotion, and a shared faith that anchored them through every season.

Corby was truly one of a kind - the kind of man who left people better than he found them, who welcomed friends as family, and who was loved by all who met him. His life was a blessing, his memory a treasure, and his legacy will live on in the lives he touched.

He leaves behind his loving wife, Cyndi; his sons, Spencer and his wife, AnnMarie, Shane and his wife, Mendy, and Barrett; and his 7 grandchildren, Samantha, Austin, Mykala, Laura, Maxwell, Ansley, and Thomas, who will carry his love and lessons forward.

A celebration of Corby's life will be held on August 30, 2025 at 1pm at Nelson-Berna Funeral home in Rogers, Arkansas, with friends and family gathering to honor a life so beautifully lived.
