“ I went to Castleberry HS in Ft Worth, TX and graduated with Allen. I am so lucky that I got to see him again at a class reunion in 2003. We talked about how he greete me in the morning calling out my name as I entered the building, he apologize for embarrassing me.... But I told him that he had made me fell Special as a quite girl. My husband John Turner who passed last year, played Football with Allen all through school. Allen will be missed at Our 50th Reunion this year. He was a bright spot in our memories of school and growing up.

My prayers go to his daughter & sisters.

“ I worked with AL at the Springdale Police Dept. He was not the kind of person you forgot regardless of time. He was a big man; he had a big smile, a big laugh, a booming voice. He loved life. To his family and friends, I am so sorry that his time came so soon and unexpectedly. May God help you through the next difficult days.

“ I met Al in the 1980's and formed an immediate friendship that has lasted until his passing. He was one of the best and most loyal friends I ever had. I had the pleasure of working with Al in the police dept. and never met a better policeman. He was kind, compassionate, caring and would spend his last dollar to help someone else. I could go on and on but he is going to be missed. Good bye old friend. Rick Green
