“ I truly admired Betty! She was kind, gave good advice and spunky. One of my favorite memories is an ornament exchange party we had at Lynn's house. We did it as a white elephant gift exchange and she got such a kick out of taking the ornaments. She took the best one's, then the next person would take it from her, she had such a gleam in her eyes. At the end she had an ornament that someone else wanted and she gave it to them. That was a fun night and loved the time with the ladies, especially Betty. She also would send such funny posts and messages through Messenger, I always looked forward to the posts. I was truly blessed to know Betty and will miss her.
