

Clarence Aubrey Long

March 8, 1929 - January 2, 2018

Clarence Aubrey Long, 88, of Rogers, Arkansas passed away Tuesday, January 2, 2018 at the Veterans Hospital in Fayetteville, Arkansas. He was born March 8, 1929 in Smackover, AR to Allen McKenzie Long and Mable Leona Alger Oliver Long and was the fourth of their eight children with his twin sister Clarice beating him out for third place. He was raised with three of his mother's children, Ouida, Leona, and J.W. He also had three siblings from his father, Margie, Clara, and Russell. He proudly served in the United States Navy from 1949-1953 and was on the Quillback (424) submarine. He was preceded in death by his father and mother, brothers Russell Long, J. W. Oliver, John Long, and his sisters Ouida Hogg, Leona Lotz, Vera Fraser, Clarice Smith, Peggy Sullivan, Marjorie Parks, and Clara Massey. He is survived by six children, Steven Long (Lea) of Rogers, Mary Holmes (Ted) of Yuba City, CA, Rose Woods (Gene) of Rogers, Jim Long of Claremore, OK, George Long (Barbara) of Rogers, Alice Heikens (Norm) of Franklin, IN; three siblings, Paul (Gloria) Long of El Dorado, AR, Huey Long of Magnolia, AR, Marie Rogers (Pat) of Port Neches, TX; eleven grandchildren, Stephanie Long of Springdale, AR, David (Hannah) Long of Bentonville, AR, Tim Holmes (Jennifer) of Sutter, CA, John Holmes (Moorea) of Yuba City, CA, Larry Woods of Crooked River Branch, OR, Jonathan (Adrienne) Woods of Rogers, Jessica Long of Rogers, Matthew Long of Fayetteville, AR, James Long of Rogers, John Long of Rogers, and Ethan Heikens of Franklin, IN; and eight great grandchildren, Phillip Long, Ellie Holmes, Colby Holmes, Jayden Holmes, Atticus Holmes, Gideon Holmes, Henry Woods, and Amelia Woods. In addition, he is survived by many people he considered his adopted children and scores of friends and business associates. Pall bearers are David Long, Ted Holmes, Jonathan Woods, Danny Smith, Matthew Long, and Norm Heikens. Honorary pall bearers are Gene Woods, Larry Woods, Tim Holmes, John Holmes, James Long, John Long, and Ethan Heikens. He was known to his family as Clarence, but often went by C.A., and everyone knew him as a fun-loving joker and teller of stories and tall tales. However, he wanted people to know that he was also serious, and there was a deeper side to him. He was so tender-hearted that you would rarely find him attending a funeral. He was known for his generosity and would do anything he could to help a friend, family member, or stranger. He sometimes referred to himself as Squad 51 to the rescue! He grew up working in the oil fields around

Smackover. He never considered school very important but graduated high school with the help of Clarice doing his reading and English (while he helped her with math) and working a deal with the superintendent at Louann to do a work/study program to finish school. During his life he stayed involved with oilfield and natural gas production and construction work with a stint in the life insurance industry. He was an eternal optimist and believed that the best was yet to come. He was old school and part of a generation where his word was his bond, and a handshake was as good as his signature. He enjoyed fishing and teaching others to fish, and he would teach them to holler, "Hold your head up, Milo!" as the fish was reeled in. Family was most important to him, and most vacations were spent visiting dear family in the south or in Connecticut. Woe be unto you, if you were a new boyfriend, girlfriend, guest, or other newbie at a family reunion or family gathering. In short order, these people would soon be brought into the family fold, with his I. Q. Test, Whoopie Stick, his keen sense of smell finding the wild hogs, or whatever new trick, joke, or story he had up his sleeve. The rest of the family would watch in delight as these favorite pranks were tested on others - and not them. No gathering would be complete without a card game of pitch, spades, crazy rummy or a few rounds of dominoes. The air would be peppered with his trademark phrases, "I LOVE this game", "The cream RISES to the top", "I've got a hand like a foot", and "Did you feel the breeze as I passed you?" He taught his children and grandchildren to play these games, and he treasured the precious time with them. His memory will live on in our hearts. His love of life, laughter, and family will be a lasting legacy. Funeral services will be at 11:00AM, Friday, January 5, 2018 at Stockdale-Moody Funeral Services of Rogers with the Rev. James Longmate officiating. Visitation will be from 10:00AM until service time. Burial will be at 2:00PM at the National Cemetery in Fayetteville, with military honors provided by the United States Navy Honor Guard. Memorials may be made in memory of Clarence Long to the Volunteer Services Dept., Veterans Health Care of the Ozarks, 1100 North College Drive, Fayetteville, AR 72703 or the Shriners Clarence Aubrey Long, 88, of Rogers, Arkansas passed away

“Mr. CA" was loved by so many and will be sorely missed! The first time I met him I knew he was my friend. Over this time I heard many family stories. Probably my most favorite were the "granddad stories," he always had the sweetest smile when talking about his grandkids and great grand kids! Mr. CA was so very proud of all of his family! Please accept all of our love, and prayers, and deepest sympathy. Mr. CA will never be forgotten.
With love in Christ,
Kathy Whelchel and family

“I am very sorry to hear of Clarence's passing. I lost touch with him several years ago. He was my staff manager in the insurance business in the 70s & 80s. I will never forget how many ways he helped me in the business, and he even pitched in a few times to help me when I was building my family's home in Monticello. We won several company trout fishing trips to Calico Rock. He was so much fun, and I can still hear him say, "Hold up your head Milo!" You have my prayers and sympathy at this sad time.

“ Dear Long family,
We are sorry to hear of the passing of your father, and grandfather. We met C.A. a couple of times through the years through his son George. His obituary tells us of his kind, and fulfilled life with his children and family who have cherished him. May your memories of him help you through this difficult time.
