“ I honestly don't remember ever seeing Dale without a smile on his face. When we first met he was quick to tell me stories of his his favorite beer (Dale's Pale Ale, obviously), his golf adventures, and immediately treated me as an extension of his family. He's offered me a place to stay in his home and on multiple occasions surprised me with bags of his homemade beef jerky, which I never said no to. Dale Eis was overflowing with character which is what drew so many people to him. There's a long list of lives he's made a massive positive impact on, and I know anyone lucky enough to get to know Po' will miss him dearly.

“ Po (Dale) was kind, funny, and full of spirit. I'll always remember the fun trips down to Arkansas to see him and Grammy (Jackie). Landon, my brother, loved seeing Po and playing rough. We'll miss you Po. Rest easy. Love, G.

“ Dale was always like another grandfather to me. I used to go with Paul, Michelle, and Alicia (Michelle is my aunt) to Jackie and Dales house almost every summer when we were kids. He always made me laugh and treated me like one of his grandkids. He was a great, funny, kind man and I will miss him dearly. May he Rest In Peace
