Obituary

Judith Ann Rollins, 69, of Rogers, AR passed away December 7, 2018 at Northwest Medical Center in Bentonville. She was born August 10, 1949 to Edward Joseph and Helen Augusta Waschek Laurent.

Judith lived a remarkable life, staying active even in the last years of her life battling cancer. She lost her husband while her children were still very young, and she did an amazing job raising them on her own.

Judy lived her life to serve her children, her grandchildren, her daughters-in-law and sons-in-law. She did not know the meaning of step or adopted, anyone added to the family was immediately her family. She showered all the children with so much love.

Judith loved the outdoors and taking the children and grandchildren camping and fishing. Judy helped care for her grandchildren from the time they were born, and she had a very strong bond with all of them. She was known for her baking and cooking and loved making special dishes for all the kids, as well as teaching the granddaughters her special dishes. It is a rumor that her oldest son Joseph was the favorite because anytime he was coming over she would make special dishes just for him. However, Judy would tell you there is no such things as favorites when it comes to children. Everyone always got a laugh about this when it was brought up.

She was preceded in death by her husband, James Rollins and her parents.

Judith is survived by her four children, Joseph Rollins and wife, Jennifer of Rogers, AR, Julia Citrowske and husband, Marlin of Dawson, MN, Jolene Rollins of Rogers, AR and Jeremy Rollins and wife, Jennifer of Clayton, NC; two sisters, Donna Rowe and Linda Dahlin; one brother, Clyde Laurent; 16 grandchildren, Robbie Rollins, Morgan Rollins, Alexis Rollins, Dalton Johnson, Colton Johnson, Hunter Rollins, Tyler Paddack, Trentin Womack, Raelynn Ferguson, Louis Bimbi, Payton Bimbi, Trista Citrowske, Travis Citrowske, Nick Citrowske, Brandon Citrowske and Mikey Coen; and four great-grandchildren.
