“ I'm deeply shocked and saddened to hear of Lynn's passing. Lynn was the salt of the earth. Funny, loyal, and would do anything for you. I met Lynn at Immigration/Border Patrol Recruiting. Lynn had hilarious stories and a way with words which still live on to this day in my home in Sweden. When I went on vacation, Lynn would always be gracious and look after my cats for me. I left INS shortly before 9/11 and moved to Sweden. I was so glad to reunite with Lynn on FB. She was an unforgettable lady. I'll miss you, Lynn! Everytime we break out the calculator and "kakulate", we'll always think of you! Love you!

“ I'm so sad to hear the passing of Lynn. I worked with her when she was in HR. We were both assistants and that time and she was such a hoot! She's always joking or had a saying of somensort all the time. We cared and watched out for each other. she'll be missed. My condolences for your family!

“ So many memories ... too many to even remember, but I will always cherish them.. Lynn & I were friends since we were babies. She was a true "life-long" friend. Growing up on 29th Avenue South in Minneapolis, starting kindergarten at Longfellow Elementary, joining the Brownies and the Girl Scouts and taking dancing lessons. We did it all. I will miss you my dear friend.

Lynn and I worked together in HR for Homeland Security. Loved her smile and positive attitude. Breaks were always a pleasure. She brought so much light and laughter into our work.

“ So very sorry to hear that Lynn passed away. I worked with her for 18 years in Insurance at the VA at Ft Snelling in MN. It was good to see her again when she was up in Minnesota and was able to attend a lunch we had for retired VA employees. We taken on line every now and then to catch up. My sympathies to your entire family.
